

New Publications.

D. APPLETON & Co., No. 43 and 45 Broadway, PUBLISH THIS DAY, AT ANCHOR, A STORY OF OUR CIVIL WAR. This charming tale abounds in striking delineations of both Northern and Southern character. Its most striking feature is its noble and dramatic incidents, which stimulate every loyal heart. Gracefulness, intelligence and abundance are the features of the lively yet with which it is written.

New Publications.

A SPLENDID NEW NOVEL, A WOMAN'S NOVEL, MARY BRANDEGEE. This new work, just published, is commencing to make a large impression everywhere. A large edition was printed to start with, but it did not last long, and the publishers are hard at work on a second edition. Its style is perfect, and most entertaining. The reality of incident and intensity of plot rivet the reader's attention from the first page to the last.
